Landscape paintings by Greg Pfarr are on exhibit through June at the Center for the Humanities. Done over the last 10 years, the acrylic works are mainly of the artist's Corvallis house, garden and neighborhood, although a few focus on wilderness.

Best known for his prints, Pfarr's work has been exhibited in international competitions such as Sigma Gallery's monotype competition in New York, the Museum of Modern Art's Landscape Competition in Los Angeles, and the Portland Art Museum's International Print Exhibition.

Nationally, his exhibition sites have included the Boston Printmakers, the Philadelphia Print Club, and the Los Angeles Printmakers.

The show is free and open to the public weekdays. For information, call 7-2450.
